Hello Ladies,

Here we are down to our last two newsletters and last two luncheons of the 2008/2009 season. It seems like we just began this year. However, we have accomplished a great deal so we can be very proud of our efforts to impact the lives of women and children.

The March Boutique Luncheon was our final fundraising effort for the year, as well a trial for a larger event next season. I am happy to report that our small Boutique netted us $700.00. Thank you to everyone who participated and a most sincere thank you to Marsha Gershberg for coordinating the Luncheon. A good time was had by all plus we were able to add dollars to our Grant fund. Plans are being made to turn this boutique idea into something much larger – possibly in November.

The April luncheon is reserved for our Annual Recognition Awards.... a time to recognize some of our own wonderful ladies who represent the finest in volunteer service. Last April the year-end awards were presented to very deserving and outstanding Members. To refresh your memory, recipients were:

Kristi Winter, Pinnacle Award
Viki Brown, Creative Award
Sandy Foss, Spirit Award
Fran Safier, New Member Award
Barbara Rousso, Humanitarian Award
Sherry Blanchard Stuart, Unsung Hero Award

These fine winners make up the Awards Committee for this year and will make their presentations at the upcoming luncheon.

I am looking forward to seeing you all at the April 15th luncheon at Troon Country Club. Remember to bring a bulletin board for Homeward Bound. How many inches of bulletin board can we collect?

Happy Easter, Happy Passover,

Jackie Cromett

SUMMER ANGEL PROGRAM

Please Open Your Hearts!

During the summer, from May to October, there aren't any events to raise money for our charities. Their needs are always increasing.

We are asking you to give $2.00 a day during this time which is a total of $300.

With this generous gift, you will be listed in all our programs throughout the year as being a "SUMMER ANGEL."

As an extra bonus, the first thirty members to give $300 will be included in a drawing to win a $400 Black Oscar Handbag. That's one chance in thirty to win.

Please Join!

We thank you for all your support. For additional information, contact Barbara Rousso at 480-585-6666.

Please send your contribution to CWPP at: 8711 E. Pinnacle Peak Road, PMB 244,
Scottsdale, AZ. 85255

NEW MEMBER SPOTLIGHTS

GINA ZOULEK

Creative Women thanks Susan Wain for sponsoring new member Gina Zoulek. Many of you have met Gina at our monthly luncheons. She is warm and energetic and is an asset to our organization.

Gina is originally from Chicago, but moved to Scottsdale 20 years ago. She is married to her husband, Tom, for fifteen years and is the proud mom of Zachary (14) Garrett (11) and Emma (4 1/2). She works at the Scottsdale Insurance Company and keeps quite busy.

When she is not working she loves to cook for her family and friends. When Gina is not in Buckeye watching her son's motor cross race she is either working or entertaining.

Gina is excited about the opportunities Creative Women offers, and she looks forward to helping others.

SUSAN MARKOWITZ

Susan Markowitz was born in New York City and moved to San Francisco with her husband Barry shortly after graduating from Hunter College. She and her husband raised their two sons there where they enjoyed sailing in the Bay. She has also lived in Ann Arbor, Michigan and spent many years in Vail, Colorado prior to relocating in Scottsdale three years ago. Professionally, she worked with severely disabled young adults/adults establishing community residences and programs to develop independent living skills. She also was an art consultant at a Vail art gallery.

Susan is a horsewoman, with her own barn and two horses on her property in North Scottsdale. She regularly rides in Tonto National Forest, and sails their boat out of Long Beach, California. She plays bridge, quilts, reads mystery novels, and enjoys Native American art and history.

After joining CWPP this year she became a member of the Grant Committee, volunteered at the Hope Kids picnic event, and is looking forward to becoming a volunteer at Horses Help.

Susan's sons and daughter-in-law live in Southern California, and she recently became a grandmother to a little girl named Cate.
